SALARY CUT IS NOT MADE POSITIVELY

Merchants' Association Wires to Washington for Information on Senate Amendment

MAY YET BE AMENDED
REPLIES S. C. ALBERT

Combined Civic Bodies Expected to Take Action to Defeat Present Plans

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21.—
The senate appropriations committee added an amendment to the legislative bill, reducing the salaries of the governor and secretary of the territory of Hawaii.

The matter will come up for consideration before the senate about ten days hence and must be later accepted by the house.

The present status of the amendment, however, is not beyond the amendment stage.

S. C. ALBERT.

The foregoing message was received this morning by W. R. Farrington, president of the Merchants' Association, in response to a message forwarded yesterday afternoon following a meeting of the merchants.

The receipt of the news to the effect that the cut in the salaries of the governor and secretary of the territory has not been positively settled will undoubtedly result in the combined civic bodies of Honolulu—possibly of Hawaii—making a strenuous fight for the retention of the present salaries of the affected officials.

While no positive action has been taken as yet, it is believed that a meeting will be held in the near future at which this question will be thoroughly out and the matter taken up with the authorities in Washington.

SENATOR RICE HERE,
MAY BE IN FIELD
FOR DELEGATESHIP

Senator Charles Rice of Kauai is in the city today and political tongues are telling it that he comes here to see how things look for himself he decide to run for delegate.

He was asked this morning if he has decided to run for office, but he would not say—he did not wish to talk politics. His friends say that he can beat Delegate Kuhio hands down.

Senator Rice has another session to serve in the legislature. He may resist this as an obstacle to his running for delegate.

He will return to Kauai this evening.

MAJOR-GENERAL WILLIAM H. CARTER FIFTY YEARS A SOLDIER TODAY

Commander of Hawaiian Department Entered U. S. Army During Days of Civil War

It was just 50 years ago today that Major-general William H. Carter, commander of the Hawaiian department, first became affiliated with the army of the United States. While the veteran commander is making no official observance of the day, still, when seen this morning, he expressed no little enthusiasm when reminded that he is rounding out half a century of service in the fighting forces of America.

His first affiliation with the United States army began when, as a boy during the close of the Civil War, he joined the service May 31, 1864, as a carrier of messages and dispatches.
So many were the thrilling experiences, and so great became his love for the service that his boyhood interest came to be his life's ambition.
An incident in the Civil War furthered his desire to become a West Point graduate, which ambition he was able to realize, as he was graduated from the United States military academy in 1873 and was appointed a 2d lieutenant in the 8th Infantry. From then on his career saw him a 2d lieutenant in the 6th Cavalry in 1878, a 1st lieutenant in 1879, a captain 1889, a major in 1897, a lieutenant-colonel in 1898, a colonel in 1902, a brigadier-general in the same year, a major-general in 1909, having been appointed commander of the Hawaiian department in 1914.

Major-general Carter, who was born in Tennessee Nov. 14, 1851, is one of the few living officers of the United States who saw service during the Civil War.

CHIEF JUSTICE MAY MAKE RACE FOR DELEGATE

A. G. M. Robertson Urged to Make Race Against Kuhio
By Republican Friends

PARTY AMALGAMATION
MAY BE ACCOMPLISHED

Letters Sent Around Territory in Effort to Bring Pressure on Party War-Horse

Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson, who is urged by his many Republican friends to enter the race for delegateship.

Chief Justice A. G. M. Robertson is being urged by scores of friends to enter the race for delegate to Congress.

His republican friends declare he is the best, and, perhaps, the only man who can be counted on to defeat Prince Kuhio in the primaries.

So far the chief justice has not made a statement indicating whether he will or will not consider the proposition of being a candidate.

For years one of the foremost Republicans in the territory, supported by both the Hawaiian and haole voters, it is conceded in all quarters that Justice Robertson, entering the race, would be the strongest candidate obtainable to set against Delegate Kuhio.

The justice's friends here who are urging him to run have sent letters over the territory to Republicans asking them to assist in bringing pressure on him to get in the field.

They contend that with Justice Robertson running for delegate, the party will be bound together and will score a signal victory over the Democrats.

The commander of the Hawaiian department stands today as one of America's most valuable officers. His latest honor was conferred upon him when he was placed in his present command—the first two-star man to be assigned to Hawaii which is destined to become America's greatest military post.

WOMEN MAY BE ASKED TO AID FAIR WORKERS

John Effinger, New Member of the Commission, Has New Ideas for Success of Work

HAWAIIAN SOCIETIES MAY HELP IN THE DECORATIONS

Scheme of Latest Recruit Will Be Launched at Meeting of Organization Today

That the services of the prominent women of Hawaii, especially the members of the various Hawaiian societies, be enlisted by the Hawaii Fair Commission with a view to securing suggestions and ideas regarding the interior decorations of the territory's building at the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915, as well as other matters of importance, forms the basis of a project which John Ef-finger, recently appointed a member of the commission to take the place of C. E. Wright, resigned, will launch at a meeting of the organization at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

In outlining his plan this morning, Mr. Effinger stated that he believed the commission would be greatly benefited if the discriminating taste of the women of Honolulu was made the basis of the interior decorations, color scheme and flower scheme of Hawaii's building. He said that the women of the city should be urged to take as great an interest in the fair's building as the men are doing, pointing out that such an action would be in line with what the commissions of other states and territories are doing.

"If the co-operation of the women was invited, many schemes regarding decorations could be secured and the most attractive and pleasing accepted and put into use by the commission," he said. "The interior of the building will have to be decorated in some manner, and the matters of a color scheme and flower scheme will demand attention. The women of the territory should be asked to offer suggestions, or, better still, a special meeting of the commission should be called at which time a number of

SCHOOL TEACHERS REMEMBER LOST FAIR EXHIBITS

Superintendent Kinney Will Talk Before Fair Commission This Afternoon

There is little enthusiasm being displayed by the public school teachers throughout the territory regarding the possibilities of a Hawaiian educational exhibit at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco in 1915, according to a statement made this morning by Henry W. Kinney, superintendent of public instruction. At the request of the members, Mr. Kinney will be present at a meeting of the Hawaii Fair Commission at 3 o'clock this afternoon, at which time he will offer his suggestions regarding such an exhibit, should the commission decide to install one.

"As yet, I have given very little attention to the matter of an educational exhibit," said Mr. Kinney, "as I have been preparing for the annual teachers' meeting. My suggestions probably will be largely based in accordance with the views which the commission has in mind. Personal investigations, however, have brought to light the fact that the teachers are displaying little or no enthusiasm regarding an exhibit. Many valuable exhibits from several local schools, some of them costing as high as $500, were sent to the Seattle exposition, and I have learned that, in many instances, but half or less of the exhibits were ever returned to Hawaii. It is this, I believe, that has put a damper on the enthusiasm of the teachers.

"I have formed no opinion as to whether Hawaii's educational exhibit should be in the territory's own building or in the exposition set aside for exhibits of this kind. I shall find out first the opinion of the commissioners, and then will probably have something definite to offer them."

When the matter of an educational exhibit was first brought up at the time Willis T. Pope was superintendent of public instruction, a committee was appointed and a tentative outline of an exhibit was drawn up. The work of the committee ceased after a while, however, and the outline was never taken up for serious consideration.

Besides Mr. Kinney, Dr. William T. Brigham, director of the Bishop Museum, will be present at the meeting to outline to the commission what the museum might be able to do toward furnishing some exhibit for the main floor of the Hawaii building.
Gordon Osborne, the sculptor, also will be present to offer suggestions regarding possible statuary for the building.

KELOS TO PLAY SIX GAMES HERE; A BASEBALL WAR

Local Sporting Man Puts One Over On Management of the Oahu League

The Kelo University baseball team will play six more games in Honolulu before leaving for Japan, June 6. This was decided last night, when a committee from the Oahu League closed matters with the Kelo management, prior to the sailing of this shipper Motel, on which line the Oriental collegians, arrived from the coast, with only tentative plans for their stay here.

Up to the minute of sailing there was uncertainty and misunderstanding owing to the fact that the Oahu League had been asleep at the switch, while H. G. Lowry, a local sporting man, secured a lease on the Molili grounds good until June 11.
The Oahu League was put in the somewhat ridiculous position of doing business as the representative baseball organization without having any grounds on which to stage its games.
Athletic Park is in the process of remodeling, and talk of playing the games on open lots, such as Alexander Field and Aala Park, was manifestly a bluff.

Lowry asked 25 per cent of the gross receipts for the use of the Molili grounds, he to pay umpires and running expenses of the games, and this figure was met by the league, when that body discovered that it had no "out" and that in case it called off negotiations with the Kelos, the Japanese team would stay over anyway, on a percentage basis, and play under Lowry's management. This arrangement holds good for next Saturday and Wednesday, when a continuance of the plan will be definitely decided.
The Oahu League hopes that by rushing matters it may get Athletic Park in shape by Decoration Day, in which case the games will be transferred to the downtown arena.

The schedule of games for the Kelos is as follows:
Saturday, May 23—Portuguese.

"Gringo" How The Name Was Applied By The Mexicans

Perhaps only one person in a hundred knows how the word "Gringo" came to be applied to Americans by the Mexicans.
What does it mean? And why did the Mexicans apply it to us?
The derivation and origination of words has filled several volumes —but only a few of them are shown to have sprung into life in such a unique and interesting way as "Gringo." And this is how it happened:
When the soldiers were marching through Mexico in our war with that country, they fell to singing "Green Grow the Rashies, O." Wherever they went, this song heralded their coming. The Mexicans, listening, did not quite grasp the meaning. "Green Grow," etc., the soldiers sang to the top of their lungs. The two words—green grow—stuck in the Mexicans' minds. And so in a short time the soldiers, and all Americans along with them, were given that name—only in the Mexican tongue it came out "Gringo."

PINKHAM NAMES WOMAN REGENT OF COLLEGE

Mrs. J. R. Ashford and W. R.
Farrington Succeed C. M.
Cooke and Judge Cooper

W. R. Farrington and Jennie R.
Ashford were appointed on the board of regents of the College of Hawaii this morning by Governor Pinkham.
Mrs. Ashford, who is the wife of C. W. Ashford, is appointed as a successor of J. Montague Odell, whose term has expired. Mrs. Ashford has the distinction of being the first woman to be appointed to a place on the board of regents.

Mr. Farrington, who is called the father of the college, because of the initiative work he did in getting the institution started, succeeds Judge Cooper on the board.

Mr. Farrington is credited with being the originator of the idea of having such a college established here.
He started the movement in its favor which resulted in a committee of the University Club drafting a bill which was then carried through congress.
He was then connected with the department of public instructions.

Chief Executive Will Wireless to Britain's Ruler at Opening of Marconi Plant

Upon the completion of the two local stations of the Marconi Wireless Company, one of the first messages to be flashed from the aerials at Kahuku will be from Governor L.
R. Pinkham to King George of England, which will carry Hawaii's aloha to all Britain. This announcement was made this morning by John R.
Call, a member of the committee arranging the celebration to mark the opening of the Hawaii stations next month, upon receipt of a letter from E. N. S. Gordon, the local British consul, saying that the latter has completed all necessary arrangements for the transmission of the wireless.

The communication reads:

"You will be glad to hear that I have received a cablegram from the foreign office stating that His Majesty the king will be pleased to receive a wireless message from Hawaii as promised."

The receipt of this letter practically completes the plans of the committee, inasmuch as wireless announcements and greetings are concerned. It is planned to have the governor send a message to the president of the United States and to the governor of California, and Mayor J. J. Fern a message to the mayor of San Francisco.
A message also may be sent to M.
Marconi who now is in Europe. N. H.
Slaughter, resident engineer for the company, has made no official announcement as to the date when the stations at Kahuku and Koko Head will be opened for business.

Tomorrow morning in Judge Robinson's court, the damage suit of George E. Ward against the Inter-Island S. N. Company, is set for hearing.
If there is no argument in the Mason-Lord-Young case the Ward case will begin tomorrow.

JOSEPH CANNON WOULD RETURN AS CONGRESSMAN

Former Speaker of House Out as Candidate for Job Lost in Landslide

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
DANVILLE, Ill., May 21.—Joseph Gurney Cannon (Uncle Joe) has announced his candidacy for Congress this morning by Governor Pinkham.
Cannon has been before the public as a politician and in public office since 1881, when he was elected state's attorney for Illinois. From 1873 to 1881 he was a member of Congress, missing one term, and returning to Washington in 1883 and remaining until 1913, when he went down to defeat with the balance of the Republican host.

From 1903 until 1911 he was speaker of the house and in 1908 was a candidate for the presidency, receiving 58 votes.

AMERICANS OUT OF BRITISH GOLF TOURNAMENT

Wireless.)

SANDWICH, Eng., May 21.—This was a day of surprises in the annual British amateur golf championship play. The two remaining American players were eliminated, and the British title holder was defeated by a man who succumbed in the succeeding round.

"Chick" Evans, the Chicago player, was defeated by C. M. McFarlane, 4 up and 2 to play. Harold Weber of Toledo was put out by Captain Hutchinson, 6 and 4. This eliminated the American contingent. McFarlane was later beaten by E. Martin Smith.
Harold H. Hilton, champion, was beaten by "Ted" Blackwell, another veteran of the links, and Blackwell in turn lost to L. Phillips.

LONDON, England, May 21.—Engineer Pankhurst, while enroute to Buckingham palace with a monster petition favoring the granting of women's suffrage, together with a number of suffrage leaders, was taken into custody by the police.

Miss Pankhurst was leading a monster parade which was dispersed by the police at the time the arrests were made.

Fearing militant action on the part of the suffragettes the window to the king's chamber is closely guarded.

ing Niagara Falls

NIAGARA FALLS, Canada, May 21.— The session of the mediators, which opened here last night in an effort to straighten out the differences between the United States and Mexico, spent the larger part of today in an effort to obtain from the Mexican delegates a general outline of the Mexican viewpoint of the controversy.
Various tentative solutions were suggested by the delegates from Mexico, also by those from the United States and the representatives of Brazil, Chile and Argentina.

No formal expressions or suggestions for positive action were asked or offered by any present.

The mediators have established headquarters in the beautiful Clifton hotel, which overlooks the falls and gives one of the most desirable views of that great nature wonder.

HOME RULE BILL IS OPPOSED IN LOWER HOUSE

Wireless.)

LONDON, England, May 21.—Dis-orderliness and strong opposition marked the closing stages of the discussion of the Home Rule Bill in the House of Commons. Action was greatly delayed by the tactics adopted by those not in favor of the passage of the measure.

It had been expected that the bill would receive action and adjournment taken today. Tomorrow, should no satisfactory conclusion be reached, it is expected that an adjournment of the session will be forced.
